MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING Between
Universidad del CEMA,
Buenos Aires, Argentina
and the College of Agriculture at Iowa State University of Science and Technology, Ames, Iowa, U.S.A.

This Memorandum of Understanding between the Universidad del CEMA and the College of Agriculture at Iowa State University signifies mutual interest in the development of joint educational and research projects. Where financially feasible and consistent with the policies of the Board of Regents of the State of Iowa, and the Law of Higher Education N° 24.521 and all other governing legislation, the parties agree to pursue mutual interest in the following types of activities:

Exchange of students at the undergraduate and/or graduate level. Students who meet regular admissions requirements of the host institution may be admitted to academic programs. The term(s) of attendance, and course of study will be determined individually for each student by the two institutions.

Prior to finalizing exchanges, representatives at both institutions shall secure approvals from their respective department heads and University administrative officers. It is understood that neither party assumes any financial obligations as a result of this Memorandum of Understanding, but that financial arrangements will be negotiated separately and will depend upon the availability of funds.

The signatures of the institutional representatives affixed below signify the interest of both parties in promoting mutual friendship and cooperation. This understanding will remain in effect until one party notifies the other of its wish to terminate the agreement.
