MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
Among
Saint Stephen University
and Gyöngyös College
and
College of Agriculture
Iowa State University of Science and Technology

This Memorandum of Understanding between Saint Stephen University, Gyöngyös College, and the College of Agriculture, Iowa State University of Science and Technology, identifies joint interest in the development of cooperative distance education programs. Where financially feasible and consistent with the policies of the Board of Regents of the State of Iowa, Saint Stephen University and Gyöngyös College, and all governing legislation, the parties agree to pursue mutual interest in the following types of activities:

Planning discussions on cooperation in the delivery of the M.S. in Agronomy developed by Iowa State University.

Long-term and short-term exchanges of faculty and staff to support implementation of distance education programs.

Programs relating to research, teaching, and/or outreach. These programs may involve any discipline (or specialization) if suitable counterparts exist at the other institution.

Prior to finalizing individual visits, projects, or exchanges, representatives at cooperating institutions will obtain approvals from their respective department heads and university administrative officers. It is understood that no party assumes any financial obligations as a result of this Memorandum of Understanding. Financial arrangements will be negotiated separately and will depend on the availability of funds.

The signatures of the institutional representatives affixed below signify the interest of cooperating parties in promoting mutual friendship and cooperation. This understanding will remain in effect until one party notifies the other of its wish to terminate the agreement.
