MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN
WROCLAW UNIVERSITY OF ENVIRONMENTAL AND LIFE SCIENCES
AND
COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE AND LIFE SCIENCES
IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY

In order to formalize the scholarly exchange agreement between Wroclaw University of Environmental and Life Sciences and Iowa State University, hereafter referred to as WUELS and Iowa State, the two universities subscribe to the statement of principles and procedures given below and to the terms of agreement attached regarding the responsibilities which each institution undertakes as its part of the reciprocal exchange.

Believing in the critical importance of students gaining an understanding of the interdependence of all peoples of the world, WUELS and Iowa State agree to the establishment of a reciprocal exchange of students between their respective institutions.

The universities therefore agree jointly to support the exchange of students between the two educational institutions by:

- Establishing a university body, or utilizing existing bodies, to provide oversight to the exchange program and to consider and rule on policy matters relating to the program.
- Selecting on an annual basis one or more students to be considered by the receiving university for admission and placement in an appropriate program of study. WUELS and Iowa State will send students majoring in the agricultural sciences. Upon mutual agreement, WUELS and Iowa State may send students majoring in other disciplines than those previously mentioned.
- Agreeing to accept as equivalent each other's tuition fee level, residence provisions, length of academic year, teaching methods, examinations, and related provisions.
- Providing predeparture orientation for own students and post-arrival orientation for guest students by utilizing existing programs or establishing special programs.
- Agreeing to pursue the possibility of expanding this agreement to include staff/faculty visits and exchanges and research projects.

This agreement is initially for a five-year period, extendible by agreement of both parties and terminable at the end of this period by mutual consent.

TERMS OF AGREEMENT FOR A RECIPROCAL STUDENT EXCHANGE BETWEEN
AND

SELECTION OF PARTICIPANTS
The selection procedure by which reciprocal exchange candidates are nominated is the responsibility of the sending institution. These candidates will normally be undergraduates but, upon mutual agreement, may be graduates. The agreed ratio for exchange will be one-for-one. The number sent by each institution each year will be decided upon by mutual agreement.

Each institution reserves the right to require candidates to complete the standard admission documents and to provide the results of any required entrance examinations.

Each institution reserves the right to accept or reject each candidate for admission on the basis of regular academic selection criteria and to accord appropriate students status at the time of admission. It is also understood that certain candidates may be rejected on account of shortage of faculty or lack of student places and other teaching or research facilities.

The acceptance of exchangees is conditional on obtaining the necessary immigration and travel clearance. The receiving institution will endeavor to assist in obtaining the proper documents.

Three months prior to the planned arrival of the students, each institution will send to the other full information on the students nominated to fill the places allocated.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM
Iowa State will enroll accepted WUELS exchangees as full time special non-degree students for up to two regular semesters of the academic year. WUELS students may enroll in regular Iowa State courses for which they have the appropriate prior study and which are appropriate to the needs of the WUELS curriculum.

At the end of the academic year Iowa State will send to WUELS a report on the academic achievement of the WUELS students. This report will take the form of an official transcript.

WUELS will enroll accepted Iowa State exchangees as full time students during the regular academic year. Iowa State students may enroll in regular WUELS courses for which they have appropriate prior study and which are appropriate to the needs of the Iowa State curriculum.

At the end of the academic year, WUELS will send to Iowa State University a report on the academic achievement of the Iowa State students, including an evaluation of performance and results of degree examinations.

STUDENT FINANCES
Iowa State and WUELS students will pay tuition fees to their home university.

Room and meal costs, travel, health and accident insurance, books and supplies, and incidental expenses are the responsibility of the individual exchangee, except as the sending institution may determine otherwise.

The receiving institution will reserve appropriate university housing for each exchangee.

Arrangements for other than university housing must be negotiated on an individual basis.
The receiving institution will provide, in advance, a list of estimated living expenses for each current academic year, for the information of the exchangees.

The exchangees will be entitled to the use of all host university facilities on the same basis as home students.

Each institution has designated an individual to serve as a point of contact. These officials are identified below:
