INTERNATIONAL MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between

University of Agronomical Sciences and Veterinary Medicine, Bucharest, Romania

and

Iowa State University of Science and Technology, College of Agriculture, Iowa, USA

I. Preamble

This International Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) constitutes an agreement between University of Agronomical Sciences and Veterinary Medicine, Bucharest, Romania, and Iowa State University of Science and Technology, College of Agriculture, Iowa, USA, to join in a strategic alliance to undertake a series of cooperative activities of common interest and mutual benefit.

In accordance with the objective to promote further cooperation between Romania and the United States of America, the University of Agronomical Sciences and Veterinary Medicine, and Iowa State University, College of Agriculture, hereby jointly enter into a bilateral linkage, focusing on the development of their institutions’ programs, particularly those in the food and agriculture related sciences. They will jointly develop and implement activities to improve their capacities to serve their respective clientele in Romania and the United States of America. This linkage is developed based upon the institutions’ commonality of interests and their belief that a linkage between them would strengthen their joint and individual capacities.

II. Objectives

The objectives of this linkage are to develop long-term activities. Where financially feasible and consistent with the policies of the University of Agronomical Sciences and Veterinary Medicine and the Board of Regents of the State of Iowa, and all other governing legislation, the parties agree to pursue mutual interest in the following types of activities:

Long-term and short-term exchanges of faculty and staff: Sabbaticals, faculty improvement leaves, visiting professorships, research collaboration, and other activities in areas of mutual interest and expertise are contemplated.

Programs relating to research, teaching, and/or outreach: These programs may encompass any discipline to the extent that suitable counterparts exist.
Encouragement of applications from students to study at the partner institution at the undergraduate and/or graduate level: Students who meet regular admissions requirements of the host institution may be admitted to academic programs. The term(s) of attendance, costs, and course of study will be determined individually for each student in accordance with standard admissions procedures for international students.

III. Program Management

Each activity will be jointly planned, implemented, and evaluated, and will be described in a plan of work which will include programmatic and budget details. Activities undertaken will permit publication, dissemination, and sharing by the two institutions of all the facts resulting from the activities. Exchange and dissemination of information will include both the exchange of working papers on joint research and the identification of materials for publication. No prohibition of publication will be imposed by either institution.

This MOU does not obligate either institution to provide funding or direct support for future collaborative activities. However, either institution, or both, may choose to provide support on a case-by-case basis. It is further understood that both institutions will jointly and separately seek funding from third parties to support activities to be carried out under this MOU. Implementation of specific collaborative programs will depend upon the availability of funds. University of Agronomical Sciences and Veterinary Medicine Bucharest and Iowa State University will assist one another with applications to funding sources for financial support of this cooperation and exchange.
